

Conference for teachers, teacher trainers and education staff

Multilingual Language Policies in Europe

Saturday, 3 June 2017, University of Dundee (Dalhousie Building)

Organised by: Spanish Embassy Education Office, Instituto Cervantes, Goethe Institut, Institut Français and University of Dundee

In partnership with: SCILT, SALT, UCMLS, Education Scotland, EU Commission

With the sponsorship of: Junta de Castilla y León

09.45 - 10.00	Registration and coffee
10.00 - 10.15	Official Opening Karl Leydecker (Vice-Principal -Learning & Teaching- University of Dundee) Miguel Utray (Consul General of Spain) Emmanuel Cacher (Consul General of France) Jens-Peter Voss (Consul General of Germany) Gonzalo Capellan (Spanish Embassy Education Counsellor)
10.15 - 11.00	Current research in language education to inform policies and practices across Europe: from CEFR to pluriliteracies Do Coyle (University of Aberdeen)
11.00 - 11.15	Coffee break
11.15 - 12.00	Panel presentations: Multilingual Language Policies in Europe Phil Ball (Spain) Isabelle Leguy (France) Marion Spöring (Germany)
12.00 - 13.00	Panel discussion and questions
13.00 - 13.45	Lunch Wine and Tapas Treat, offered by the Junta de Castilla y León (Spain)
13.45 - 15.15	Afternoon breakout sessions in French, German and Spanish: language learning journey for primary and secondary teachers - the levels of the CEFR and language certifications
13.45 - 14.30	Institute Cervantes	Institut Français	Goethe Institut
14.30 - 15.15	Institute Cervantes	Institut Français	Goethe Institut
15.15	Farewell and Certificates

Fee: £25 incl. lunch (£15 concession for trainee teachers and students)

Organised by:

With the sponsorship of:

In partnership with:

