

Goals
You understand your peers' opinions of sports.
Language Learning Goals
You can express your opinions on the subject of sports.

TO ME, SPORTS ARE...

What do sports mean to you?

What significance do sports have for your classmates and your peers in the partner class?

You'll learn more as a part of this virtual exchange.

YOUR ASSIGNMENTS

1

What do sports mean to you? Check terms that apply, then add some of your own.

compensation

relaxation

confirmation

obligation

struggle

important

incomprehension

competition

defeat

challenge

team spirit

friends

overwhelming

escape

business

limitation

bullying

other

2

What significance do sports have for you personally?
Summarize your thoughts in 3-4 sentences:

TO ME, SPORTS ARE...

3

In a 30-second video, briefly introduce yourself before giving your thoughts on sports.
Below, plan the script of your video. How will you introduce yourself?
What will you say about sports?

4

Using the video response tool provided by your teacher, record the video.

5

Watch the other students' videos and respond with a short video of your own.
Do you share their opinions? Where do your views differ?
Are there any questions you'd like to ask your peers?