

Goals

- You will work with your partner to choose a stereotype for the assignment.
- You will create a comic strip that challenges a stereotype.

Language Learning Goals

- You can create a plan for your comic strip.
- You can read and discuss comic strips from other groups.

YOUR ASSIGNMENTS

1

Meet with your partner and make a list of common stereotypes that exist in your schools, community, and/or countries.

2

Choose one stereotype from your list and create a comic strip that challenges the stereotype. In your comic strip, be sure to include:

- At least five panels or slides.
- Show the stereotype through images and/or characters' words.
- Show how the stereotype is not true.

3

Make a plan with your partner for how to complete the comic strip. You can draw the panels on paper, take pictures of each one, and put it on a slideshow. Decide what each panel will show and who will complete each part.

4

Once your comic strip is complete, meet with other groups to read their comic strips and discuss the stereotypes they are challenging.
